Historically Underutilized Businesses

The City of Frisco involves small businesses and qualified minority/woman owned businesses to the greatest extent possible in the procurement of goods, equipment, services, and construction projects. In accordance with Texas Gov't Code, Chapter 2161, Local Government Code Chapter 252.0215, the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts is responsible for administering the Historically Underutilized Business (HUB) Program for the State of Texas. The City of Frisco references vendors listed through TPASS to source (HUB) vendors during the quote process. For more information, please refer to the State of Texas HUB program at:

Supplier Performance

Suppliers should keep Purchasing advised of any changes to their remittance address or ownership, and should supply the City with an updated W-9 when such changes occur.

Delivery Dates: Failure to meet a specified delivery date reflects on your performance and could be a factor in subsequent award determinations. It is the supplier's responsibility to notify the Purchasing Division when a delay in the delivery schedule is anticipated or occurs. At this time, the supplier should indicate the new anticipated delivery date and the reason for the delay. It should be noted that failure to deliver within a contractual delivery schedule may result in the supplier being declared in default. In that event, termination action will be taken by the City under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code and the State of Texas.

Quality and Service: Unsatisfactory product quality or service performance also reflects on a supplier, and could be a factor in subsequent award determinations. Such performance can increase the City's operating costs and must be taken into consideration when awards should be made to the "lowest responsible bidder."

Procurement Methods

The City of Frisco employs the following methods to procure goods and services:

Purchases in amounts of $0 - $999.99 may be made on the basis of one (1) quotation by the using departments of the City. A Departmental Purchase Order form may be utilized for items under $1,000.
